

we have finally been able to have a meal together as a family without interruption from the phone ring and a telemarketing person on the other end. we want to keep the state law as is.